

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

I am excited to submit my application for the Bachelor of Social Work program at Klaipėda University, drawn by its reputation for nurturing empathetic and skilled social workers. With a solid academic background in social sciences and firsthand experience in community volunteering, I am eager to embark on this transformative academic journey.

Lithuania's vibrant cultural tapestry and progressive stance on social welfare make it an inspiring backdrop for studying the complexities of social work. Klaipėda University, renowned for its commitment to academic excellence and fostering compassionate professionals, offers an ideal environment for aspiring individuals like myself to grow and thrive.

My academic journey has equipped me with a robust understanding of social sciences, complemented by exceptional performance in SSLC and Plus Two examinations. Additionally, achieving a commendable IELTS score of 6.5 underscores my proficiency in English, vital for effective communication in the realm of social work.

Actively engaging in volunteer work with diverse community organizations has deepened my understanding of social issues and fortified my dedication to positive change. These experiences fuel my conviction in the transformative power of social work to promote justice, empower communities, and drive systemic change.

The Bachelor of Social Work program at Klaipėda University aligns seamlessly with my aspirations, offering a comprehensive curriculum that delves into vital areas such as social policy analysis, human behavior, and community development.

Upon graduation, I am eager to apply the knowledge and skills garnered through this program to make meaningful contributions as a social worker. My goal is to collaborate with diverse populations, advocate for marginalized groups, and contribute to the formulation of evidence-based social policies and practices.

In conclusion, I am deeply committed to championing social justice and enhancing the well-being of individuals and communities. I am confident that the Bachelor of Social Work program at Klaipėda University will provide me with the necessary tools and support to become an effective agent of change in the field of social work.

Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,
Athul Kuriakose
