If the overdue obligations are not paid on time, the Institution shall issue a written reminder, requesting the non-payer to settle the overdue obligations at the latest within the time limit specified in the reminder, using the exact payment reference. If the tuition fee payer is a legal person, the reminder shall be sent to its address and to the student for information. The reminder counts not only as a notice but also as a warning before limiting the use of Institution's services.

In accordance with the Rules on Tuition and Fees at the Institution, the non-payer access to certain services provided by the Institution shall be disabled until the payment. If the unpaid overdue obligations are not settled even within the time limit specified in the second reminder and together exceed 20,00 EUR, the student shall not be allowed to attend training.

After the payment of overdue obligation, the suspended services shall be reactivated through regular automation date processing at the latest within 3 working days and the student shall be again able to perform training obligations at the Institution.

Article 7

Notwithstanding the previous provisions of this Agreement, the student is obligated to settle all financial obligations related to their studies no later than on the day of the completion of the studies or upon receiving official confirmation of withdrawal from the Institution. The student shall be responsible for meeting any outstanding financial commitments associated with their studies within the specified timeframe, irrespective of any other provisions in this Agreement. Failure to do so may result in the withholding of academic records, certificates, or any other documents related to the program.

Article 8

Any amendments, modifications, or additions to this Agreement shall be made in the form of an Annex to the Agreement.

Article 9

Disputes shall be settled by mutual agreement between the Parties. Disputes not settled in agreement shall be resolved by the competent court in Maribor using the laws of Republic of Slovenia.

Article 10

The Agreement is concluded for period of 12 months and enters into the force on the day of arrival of students to Slovenia.

Scheduled start of education:

Depending on the type of default, tuition fee of EUR is refunded partially based on the following rules:

1. 90% tuition fee is refunded if

- Student has not yet started training, and his/her residence permit application is still in process - a refund request may be considered upon submission of comprehensive medical documentation that substantiates a prolonged inability to initiate studies. Eligible medical conditions must entail significant illnesses or injuries that have significantly compromised the student's health to the extent that they cannot commence training for a minimum duration of 6 months. To seek a refund under these circumstances, the student is required to provide a refund application accompanied by corroborating evidence. Acceptable medical documentation should be in the form of a dated letter issued by a qualified medical professional, dated no more than 14 days prior to submission. This letter must explicitly detail the nature of the illness or injury, specify the relevant dates, and outline the severity of the condition. It is essential to note that medical documentation pertaining to psychological issues will not be considered for refund purposes.
