Dear Mr. Nandha Kumar Krishna Kumar Rethika Kurup,

we hope this e-mail finds you well.

Your application for long-term visa/long-term residence permit is in process and we are writing to invite you for an interview at the Embassy of the Czech Republic in New Delhi, as requested by the Ministry of Interior of the Czech Republic. This interview is a crucial step in the visa application process and is intended to further assess your eligibility for the visa category you have applied for.

Your interview will be conducted on 19th September 2024 at 02:00 PM

We kindly request your prompt confirmation of your attendance by replying to this email. If, for any reason, you are unable to attend the interview at the scheduled time, please inform us as soon as possible so that we can make necessary arrangements.

Please be advised that attendance at the scheduled interview is crucial to the processing of your visa application. Failure to attend the interview without a valid excuse could lead to the rejection of your application.

Please note that if you do not have a fluent command of English, it is mandatory to have a translator present during the interview to ensure effective communication. You are responsible for procuring a qualified translator for this purpose and all associated expenses related to the translator's services are at your own cost.

Best regards
Amreen Khan
