

Unofficial translation

Dear Applicant,

With reference to your application for Visa D, please be informed that since your application is treated as 'not admissible', therefore we are returning your passport, and your documentation. Also, you are requested to kindly contact VFS for refund of your visa fee.

Reason:

According to the information provided in your application form, you intended duration of stay in Austria is for a time period longer than the maximum validity of Visa D. An Application for residence permit should be submitted.

Best Regards,

Austrian Embassy New Delhi
Consular Section