ABOUT ME

Dedicated and motivated student with a strong background in business studies, having pursued the subject for four years in high school with a focus on finance, economics, and banking. Eager to expand my knowledge and gain practical experience through internships, projects, and real-world case studies, with a particular interest in leadership development. Organized and committed, with a clear vision to establish a consulting firm that serves communities and organizations. Passionate about continuous learning and growth, ready to leverage this degree to explore new opportunities and build a successful career in business.
