Dear Harikrishna Sivaprasad

We hope this letter finds you in good health. We received your message about your desire to pursue further education overseas. Following careful analysis, we would affirm and support your ideas. We want you to know that we believe in your abilities, judgment, and commitment to your goals. While we understand your trepidation about your studies abroad, we realize the significance of this opportunity and believe it has immense promise for your personal and professional development.

Your precise planning, extensive research, and dedication to delivering a safe and successful event must be noticed. We appreciate your proactive approach to resolving any concerns and your willingness to maintain regular contact with us while abroad.

Our first concern as parents is your well-being and happiness, and we hope that you will make sound decisions during your journey. Please know that our love and support for you will not waver, and we will be there for you every step of the way, giving advice, encouragement, and love.

We recognize that you did not make this decision lightly and admire your commitment to achieving your dreams. This experience will enrich your life in several ways, and we are looking forward to watching you grow and thrive on this new adventure.

Please keep us updated on your plans and any new developments. We anxiously await the stories and experiences you will bring back from your travels.

We express our unequivocal support for your decision to study abroad, and we are proud of the responsible and self-sufficient person you have become. With all our love and blessings ,

SIVAPRASAD THANDASSERY PARAMBIL DAMODARAN
