

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

From a young age, I have been driven by a passion for understanding the complexities of business management and strategic planning. My academic journey and practical experiences have laid a solid foundation for pursuing an MSc in Strategic International Management at IBS Hungary. This program stands out to me for its comprehensive curriculum and international perspective, which are essential for achieving my long-term career goals.

My educational background is diverse and robust. I began my academic journey at ST. Aloysius HSS, where I completed my senior secondary education in 2014 with an 80% score. Two years later, I completed my higher secondary education from the same institution, securing a 64% score. Recognizing the importance of technical skills in today's business world, I pursued an ITI in Electronics Mechanic from the Government Industrial Training Institute, which I completed in 2018 with a 64% score.

In pursuit of broadening my knowledge base, I enrolled in a B.Com program with a specialization in computer applications at Ettumanoorappan College. I graduated in 2022 with a CGPA of 4.95, reflecting my dedication and aptitude for integrating commerce with technology. My undergraduate studies equipped me with a strong understanding of financial management, business operations, and the strategic use of information technology, all of which are crucial elements in the field of international management.

The MSc in Strategic International Management at IBS Hungary is the next logical step in my academic and professional journey. The program's focus on global business strategies, cross-cultural management, and advanced analytical skills aligns perfectly with my career aspirations. I am particularly drawn to the opportunity to learn from an international faculty and collaborate with peers from diverse backgrounds, which will enhance my understanding of global business dynamics.

Upon completing my education at IBS Hungary, I am committed to returning to India to apply the knowledge and skills I have acquired. India's rapidly growing economy presents numerous opportunities for strategic management professionals, and I am eager to contribute to this growth. My long-term goal is to work in a leadership position where I can influence business strategies and drive organizational success.

In conclusion, my educational background, technical skills, and passion for strategic management make me a strong candidate for the MSc in Strategic International Management at IBS Hungary. I am confident that this program will provide me with the expertise and global perspective needed to excel in my career and make meaningful contributions to the business community in India.
