

Dear Sir/Madam,

My name is Ann Thomas. I am an enthusiastic and dedicated student pursuing to expand my knowledge and expertise in the field of logistics and commerce. I have completed my Higher Secondary education in Commerce stream, from St. Theresa Bethany Convent School, Kerala, India. I am writing this letter to express my sincere interest in a graduate program in Commerce and Logistics at Vytautas Magnus University (VMU), Lithuania and request that you consider the opportunity for a scholarship to help me pursue my studies.

My passion for commerce and logistics has been nurtured through academic studies and practical experiences. Throughout my academic journey, I have always expressed a keen interest in understanding the complex dynamics of commerce, supply chain and logistics. Earning a degree in Commerce and Logistics from this esteemed university is an important step towards achieving my career goals in this field.

My academic qualifications are not only based on classroom studies but also included a variety of assignments and project submissions on the specific field. These experiences gave me a strong foundation in business principles and logistics fundamentals. Throughout my academic journey, I have consistently demonstrated a specific interest in logistics-related coursework, including supply chain management, international trade, and operations management. Also, I actively participated in the activities of the Commerce Club run by our school management and which gave me valuable teamwork, leadership, and problem-solving skills, all of which I am interested in further developing through this prestigious program at Vytautas Magnus University.

This scholarship not only reduces the financial burden associated with higher education but will also allow me to fully focus on my studies, actively participate in the growth and research opportunities, and participate in valuable internships or networking events within the field. In addition, I will have the opportunity to make a positive contribution to the university community through my commitment to academic excellence and active participation in various projects.

The comprehensive curriculum and multidisciplinary approach of the Commerce and Logistics graduation program at Vytautas Magnus University deeply connects with my academic and professional aspirations. I am particularly attracted to the program's emphasis on integrating theoretical knowledge with practical applications, offering a well-rounded education that perfectly matches the evolving demands of the current global job market.

My long-term goal is to use the knowledge and skills gained from the Logistics and Commerce program and contribute to the optimization of supply chains and operational efficiency and effectiveness within global enterprises. I strive to bridge the gap between logistics management and commerce by implementing innovative strategies and ideas that improve global business relationships and promote sustainable practices in the industry worldwide.

My academic journey and various inter school extra curricular activities have helped me to shape my strong analytical skills, effective communication, problem solving skills and work effectively with diverse cultures.

In conclusion, I am enthusiastic about the prospect of studying the Commerce and Logistics program at Vytautas Magnus University and am confident that this particular course will serve as a stepping stone towards achieving my career goals. I am sincerely grateful for the opportunity to be considered for the scholarship, and I am fully committed to contributing positively to the academic community at VMU.

I sincerely thank you for your valuable time to go through my motivation letter and I humbly request you to consider me for the scholarship program.

Thank you,

Your's Sincerely ,
ANN THOMAS.
