Recommendation Letter

I'm pleased to write a letter of recommendation for Dr. Shaher Musaad Alsharari ID No: 1092390705 . Dr. Shaher was one of the best students during his undergraduate studies and as an intern trainee 8th batch 2023-2024 in College of Dentistry, Jouf University, Saudi Arabia. He used to work extra cases during training years under my supervision and proved himself . During his internship period he did great job proved himself to be a hardworking student. He has a very pleasant personality, respected and admired by among the dental faculties in the College and he attended to all patients with responsibilities and professional manner. He has been actively involved in the assessment and management of simple and complicated cases of Restorative and Endodontic under my supervision at our institute, he worked in the internship many complicated cases and did extra cases. During his work, he had high manual skill associated with continuous reading of external resources. He also been assigned for university staff member clinics and show professional behavior depending on his solid knowledge, with good attitude toward the patients and workers.

I wish him success in his efforts to widen his knowledge base.
