

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Name : Gifty K Biju

Course : BSc Nursing

University : Lithuanian University of Health Sciences (LSMU)

Myself Gifty K Biju, and I submit my application for admission to BSc Nursing at Lithuanian University of Health Sciences (LSMU) from the pleasant state of Kerala, India. I come from a close-knit family of three, with my father tending to our farm and my mother managing our home. Growing up with the rich greenery of Kerala, I have been filled with a deep appreciation for community, service, and familial responsibility.

My journey in education began at Martha Mariyam Public School in Kothamangalam, Ernakulam, Kerala, where I completed my Grade 10 with distinction, achieving 89% on the public examination and also I completed my Grade 12 education at Vimalagiri Public School, Kothamangalam, by securing 79%.

The decision to pursue a career in nursing stems from my inborn desire to make a positive impact on the lives of others. Having been surrounded by cousins and relatives who are dedicated professionals in the healthcare sector, particularly in nursing, I have been deeply inspired by their experiences and fixed commitment to service. Their stories have strengthened my belief that nursing exceeds mere occupation; it is a vocation rooted in compassion, empathy, and selflessness. I firmly believe that nursing is more about service than monetary benefits, and I am eager to grab the opportunity to contribute to the well-being of others.

In my research for higher education, I conducted extensive research on countries and universities outstanding for their academic excellence and vibrant multiculturalism. The attraction of Lithuania's beauty and its welcoming climate engaged me, and Lithuanian University of Health Sciences stood out as an institution that represent for academic excellence and cultural diversity. Moreover, the affordability of the course offered by Swansea University makes it an ideal choice for pursuing my academic aspirations.

As the sole child in my family, I recognize the importance of my role in supporting and caring for my parents. It is my earnest aspiration to become a registered nurse in Lithuania, not only to fulfill my personal and professional ambitions but also to bring pride and joy to my parents.

In conclusion, I am deeply committed to embarking on this transformative journey of pursuing higher education in nursing at Lithuanian University of Health Sciences (LSMU) . I am eager to immerse myself in a rich learning environment that fosters academic growth, cultural exchange, and personal development. With determination, dedication, and a genuine passion for nursing, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to the nursing profession and make a positive difference in the lives of those I serve.

Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,

Gifty K Biju
