GRADING SYSTEM

The Savitribai Phule Pune University (formerly known as University of Pune) is located at Pune. It has a reputation as a leading centre for research and is rated among the top Universities in India.

The university employs a quantitative grading system to evaluate the performance of a student. The award of class is as follows:

% MARKS	CLASS
66% and above	First Class with Distinction
60%	First Class
55%	Higher Second Class
50%	Second Class
40%	Third Class

The minimum marks required for passing are:-

Theory papers : 40%
Sessional Work : 50%

NOTE:

1. Each lecture or sessional period is of 45 minutes duration.
2. Unlike most Universities in India, the Bachelors of Architecture course prescribed by the University of Pune is Very Demanding. The number of Students securing a first-class with distinction is very low. Even a second class is commendable.
3. All the subjects are compulsory, except the seminar topics, elective subjects and the dissertation (thesis) in the Final year, which has to be decided by the students.

Each term is of 16 weeks duration. There are 10 such academic terms in the whole course including one term of Sessional Training.

Each year the university publishes a list of top then students in Architecture. These 10 students are selected from all the Architectural institutions affiliated to the University of Pune.
