The university offers courses like BA, BSc, B.Tech, LLB, MBA, M.Tech, MA, and MSc, based on entrance exams like TS EAMCET, ICET, JEE, GATE, and CAT/CMAT. To get admission to postgraduate studies, the university also administers the Common Postgraduate Entrance Test \(CPGET\).

Choice-Based Credit System (CBCS) under Osmania University Grading System

Below are the guidelines mentioned regarding the Osmania University grading system for the candidates for the CBCS in UG courses. The University follows Choice-Based Credit System in all their departments.

- Beginning with the 2016-17 academic year, all UG Departments in the faculties of Science, Social Sciences, Arts, and Commerce of the constituent and associated institutions of OU must take part in the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS).
- Internal Evaluation Exams, assignments, etc. are used in the CBCS system to continuously evaluate students during all semesters.
- Each UG program's course options are customized to the evolving demands of business, the labour market, and societal concerns.
- Each paper or course has a set number of credits; a student's grades are translated into grade points and credit points. A student's performance in a semester is evaluated by their Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA), and their overall performance across all six semesters of their undergraduate degree is evaluated by their Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA).

Osmania University Grading System Awards

As per the Osmania University grading system, the grade letter is a measure of a student's performance in a particular course (Paper). It is the conversion of the actual grades a student received for a course or paper. A Grade letter of O, A, B, C, D, E, or F represents it.

Each Grade Letter has a range of grades. If a student misses an exam, the grade letter Ab is substituted in the memo for the grade letter. According to the grading system in Osmania University grades are given in a course or paper, and Grade Point gives each grade letter a certain amount of weight.

Grade	% Marks range	Grade Point
O	85-100	10
A	70 to <85	9

Grade	% Marks range	Grade Point
B	60 to <70	8
C	55 to <60	7
D	50 to <55	6
E	40 to <50	5
F	<40	4
