I, Garima Chhabra's physics and class teacher strongly recommend her candidature for your medical school. Throughout my journey of teaching her, she showed qualities of patience and hard worker in both academic and non academic spheres. She goes beyond her limits in order to help people around her. She has a knack for everything. Garima compared favourable to rest of my students. She has an outstanding ability to infer logical and mathematical conclusions to concepts of physics. I am sure she will be outperforming graduate student. She has been attentive to questions raised by me during lectures and exhibited quality of attentiveness during class. If she is given chance to study medicine, she will become a great doctor. I offer her my best wishes for her medical school and gradually a successful career ahead.
