The tuition fee and the method of payment for the subsequent years of study are determined with the annex to this Agreement upon enrolment in the next year.

VII.

The Student who withdraws from the study programme up to and including 15 October of the current academic year shall be refunded the total amount of the paid enrolment contributions and tuition fee.

All students who have enrolled in a study programme and paid the tuition fee and enrolment contributions for a study programme that will not be implemented in the relevant academic year, are entitled to a refund of the entire tuition fee and enrolment contributions (the Student's request is not required). In this case, the FT UM refunds the entire tuition fee and enrolment contributions before the start of the academic year.

In accordance with the provisions of Article 19 (7) of the Instructions, the Student enrolled in the first- or second-cycle study programme is also entitled to a refund of part of the tuition fee without a request if they withdraw from the study programme, as follows:

- 80% of the tuition fee if the Student withdraws by 31 October of the current academic year,
- 50% of the tuition fee if the Student withdraws by 31 December of the current academic year, and
- 0% of the tuition fee if the Student withdraws after 1 January of the current academic year.

If the Student, their partner, or a member of their immediate family becomes seriously ill or dies, or if there are other special reasons which prevent the Student from starting their studies, the Student may request a refund of the fully paid enrolment contributions and the tuition fee by 31 October of the current academic year. After this date and by 31 December at the latest, the Student may request a refund of 70% of the enrolment contributions and the tuition fee. In cases where the Student cannot submit the refund request themselves (death, accident, etc.), a person close to the Student may submit it.

Students who were accepted to the study programmes of the University of Maribor, have paid enrolment contributions and tuition fee for their implementation, but have due to administrative obstacles not been able to obtain a visa or temporary residence permit for the purpose of their studies in the Republic of Slovenia in time, will receive a refund of 100% of the enrolment contributions and tuition fee paid less administrative costs of 5% (i.e. 95 % will be refunded) provided they withdraw from their study programme and apply for the refund by 31 December of the current academic year. Administrative costs of 5% are deducted from the total payment, which includes both tuition fees and enrolment contributions. If the reasons for not being able to come to Slovenia are attributable to the Student, the provisions set out in the third paragraph of this Article shall apply. A Student who wishes to obtain a refund of their enrolment contributions and tuition fee paid must submit a request to the FT UM in Slovene or English (by post or email) stating the reasons for the refund and attaching relevant supporting documents. The reasons for not being able to come to Slovenia attributable to students include, among others, that the visa or temporary residence permit was refused based on:

- False, inaccurate, deceiving or otherwise incomplete data provided,
- False/counterfeit/forged travel or other document(s) presented,
- An alert issued in the Schengen Information system,
- Unauthorized previous over-stay or expiration of a visa or a temporary residence permit,
- Inappropriate or missing proof of sufficient means of subsistence,
- Inappropriate or missing proof of holding adequate valid travel medical insurance,
- The Embassy or Administrative Unit concluding that the applicant presents an immigration risk.

If a Student was accepted to the University of Maribor on the basis of a cooperation agreement with an education consultancy agency and requests a refund of enrolment contributions and the tuition fee no later than by 31 December of the current academic year on grounds that they were unable to obtain a visa or temporary residence permit for the purposes of study in the Republic of Slovenia in time due to administrative obstacles, the enrolment contributions and the tuition fee shall be refunded in full less the percentage of the commission paid to the agency. The difference in the amount is withheld for agency fees incurred by the FT UM.

If a Student was accepted without the intervention of an education consultancy agency and could not start their studies on time for the same reason, they will be refunded 100% of the total enrolment contributions and the tuition fee less the administrative costs incurred by the FT UM for the enrolled Student, with the reduction limited to a maximum of 5%. Administrative costs of 5% are deducted from the total payment, which includes both tuition fees and enrolment contributions.

To all enrolled Students who fail to obtain a visa or temporary residence permit for the purpose of study in the Republic of Slovenia by 20 December of the current academic year, the FT UM shall send a notice informing them that winter semester classes will be completed in January, and that if students are not likely to meet their study obligations after joining classes only in January or later, they are advising students to withdraw from the study programme. At the same time students shall be informed of their right and conditions for the refund of enrolment contributions and the tuition fee, in which case the FT UM may extend the deadline for requesting the refund of the amounts paid.

The University of Maribor may require additional proof from the Student requesting a refund of enrolment contributions and the tuition fee, and if the Student does not provide it within the set deadline, the University may adopt a decision based on the available documents. The dean of the FT UM shall decide whether the reasons for the refund are justified.

Students who have been expelled from the study programme due to various violations or due to having exceeded the number of attempts for sitting the exam in an individual course, shall not be entitled to a refund of enrolment contributions and tuition fee.

If the request for a refund of enrolment contributions and/or tuition fee is granted, the approved amount shall be refunded to the same bank account from which the enrolment contributions and/or tuition fee were paid. The University of Maribor is not responsible for changes in exchange rates or bank fees.

VIII.

In case of late payment of the tuition fee and other study contributions, civil law rules require that the payer is charged statutory interest on overdue amounts, and the non-payer shall be reminded to pay obligations that are not yet due.

If the overdue obligations are not paid on time, the FT UM shall issue a written reminder, requesting the non-payer to settle the overdue obligations at the latest within the time limit specified in the reminder, using a payment reference provided. If the tuition fee payer is a legal person, the reminder shall be sent to its address and to the Student for information. The reminder shall count not only as notice but as a warning before the use of certain UM services is suspended. If the unpaid overdue obligations are not settled within the time limit specified in the reminder and together exceed EUR 35.00, the use of certain services shall be suspended in accordance with the Instructions.

If overdue obligations are not paid despite the first reminder, the FT UM shall issue a second reminder, again requesting the non-payer to settle their overdue obligations within the time limit specified in the reminder at the latest, using a payment reference provided. If the tuition fee payer is a legal person, the reminder shall be sent to its address and to the Student for information. The second reminder shall be considered both a notice and a warning meaning that until payment is made the Student shall not be allowed to continue with their study obligations at the University of Maribor. If the unpaid overdue obligations are not settled within the time limit specified in the second reminder and together exceed EUR 70.00, the University of Maribor shall prevent the Student from continuing their study obligations in accordance with the Instructions.

After the payment of overdue obligations, the suspended services shall be reactivated through regular automatic data processing within five working days at the latest, and the Student shall again be allowed to use the services that were suspended and continue with their study obligations at the University of Maribor.

IX.

In the case of default on payment of the tuition fee, one of the individual instalments, or other study obligations, even after the reminders were served within the prescribed time limits, the Student shall be subject to legal proceedings for the recovery of debt, together with statutory default interest, in accordance with the legislation in force governing enforcement and security. If the tuition fee payer is a legal person who, even after two reminders and within the additional time limits set, fails to pay all outstanding amounts due, payment of the outstanding amounts due shall be sought from the Student.

X.

Regardless of the previous provisions, the Student is obliged to settle all financial obligations incurred in connection with their studies by the day of graduation at the latest or until the receipt of a withdrawal from the University of Maribor.

XI.

Any amendments to this Agreement shall be made in the form of an annex to the Agreement.

XII.

The Parties shall endeavour to resolve any disputes arising out of this Agreement amicably. Should this not be possible, disputes shall be settled by the competent court in Brežice. Detailed information about the contributions has been sent in the electronic version (Instructions on Contributions and Evaluation of Costs at the University of Maribor No. 012/N2/2023/412-SF of 28 February 2023); if you prefer, you can also receive them in print. In the event of inconsistency or discrepancy between the Slovenian language version of the Instructions and the English language version of the Instructions, the Slovenian language version shall prevail.

XIII.

This Agreement shall enter into force after being signed by both Parties.

XIV.

This Agreement is drawn up in three (3) identical original copies, of which the FT UM, the Student, and UA NETWORKS poslovno in podjetniško svetovanje, tiskarstvo, založništvo d.o.o. shall each receive 1 (one) copy.
